

Representing the Athlete Beyond the Playing Contract

The Sports Lawyers Association invites you to a seminar

Sponsored By

LOEB & LOEB LLP

345 Park Avenue
(between 51st and 52nd Streets)
21st Floor
New York City

Monday, July 13, 2015

6:00 – 6:30pm: Registration and Networking

6:30 – 7:30pm: Seminar

7:30 – 8:00pm: Networking Reception

Recognizing that lawyers often serve as trusted advisors to athlete clients and can offer more than just technical legal advice about drafting contracts and liability issues, the focus of the panel will be on the advice that lawyers give (or should give) athletes in areas beyond the nuts and bolts of legal practice, such as:

- setting up and operating charitable foundations
- avoiding and dealing with disciplinary proceedings
- using social media effectively and in compliance with law.

Speakers include:

- Peter Ginsberg, Peter Ginsberg Law
- Eliot Green, Loeb & Loeb LLP
- Eric Melzer, Greenbaum Rowe Smith & David LLP
- Meredith Wolff, Seek to Be LLC and Henrik Lindquist Foundation and Eric & Jessie Decker Foundation
- Moderator: Brian Socolow, Loeb & Loeb LLP

PLEASE CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

There is no fee to attend. If you would like to participate via dial-in, please email RSVP@loeb.com.

Loeb & Loeb LLP is a State Bar of California, Illinois MCLE Board, and New York Continuing Legal Education Board approved MCLE provider. Loeb & Loeb LLP certifies that this activity conforms to the standards for approved education activities prescribed by the rules and regulation of these authorities and is appropriate for experienced attorneys. This activity has been approved for a maximum of 1.0 credit hours, of this 0 credit hours can be applied toward the ethics requirement.